

O heart of my being, O whole, I am one with you.

I am in you, by you and with you.

I recognize your presence in the living that constitutes me entirely.

And I am a speck of dust in what I have seen of you, but never separate.

You are consciousness, light, substance, and creative life that stand against the void.

You are Wisdom, Love, and Truth.

All around me, you are the power, the substance, and the intelligence from which things are formed and through which they are created.

You are the life of my spirit, the support of my soul, the intelligence of my thought.

From where I am, I seek to see you and to express you to the best of my ability and in truth.

I would like to share the magnificence of what I have seen.

Through vigilance, I strive at every moment to remain united with you in thought.

I allow only your presence—Wisdom, Love, and Truth—to move in my soul.

The desire of my thought, implanted in my soul, is quickened by you in my spirit.

In the fullness of time and through the law of faith, it is brought into visibility in my experience.

I know that the good I desire already exists in spirit in invisible form and awaits only the fulfillment of the law to be made visible in my experience, and I know that it will come through the strength of my faith.

This is my desire: Within me, I ask to express wisdom, love, strength, and eternal youth.

I ask to realize harmony, happiness, and abundant prosperity.

I ask to receive my intelligence directly from you, in order to understand the method of bringing forth from the Universal Substance that which will satisfy every good desire.

And this, so that I may possess the clear-sightedness and love that enable me to be of service to each one who is in you.

O heart of my being, O whole, I open my temple to you and give you my body, my speech, and my mind to create here all the good that is in you; and I keep the soul you have given me to contemplate and love you eternally.

That which I desire is now made clear. I form in mind only that which I desire.

As a seed begins its growth underground in the quiet and in the dark, so does my desire now take form in the silent, invisible realm of my soul.

I enter my secret chamber and shut the door to all that is not you.

With quietness and confidence, I hold my desire in mind as though it were already fulfilled.

O heart of my being, O whole, I dwell united in you in peace and await the perfect manifestation of my desire.
